

RELATIONSHIPS

- » When does a place become more than a name?
- » How can we change spaces to change our future and remember stories of our past?
- » What objects tell us about who we are?

For eight weeks during the fall of 2017 in Monday Art Enrichment, children will become art investigators to uncover their relationships with places, spaces and objects. They will share their meaningful discoveries and creative findings with the community in a Final Art Show on Dec. 4.
